SUMMER PROGAMMING

NOBIS PROJECT DIGITAL MEDIA INSTITUTE
SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Nobis Project strives to make it possible for young people of all economic circumstances to attend the Nobis Project Digital Media Institute. Scholarships assist families by providing a portion of tuition for attendance at the Institute. It is our sincere desire that no child be denied the opportunity to attend the institute because of financial difficulties. If you feel your child qualifies for a scholarship, please fill out the application below for each applicable child. Tuition assistance is available in two amounts: $100 or $200. Remaining tuition is to be paid by the recipient from his or her own resources. Previous experience is not required for tuition assistance. Scholarships are awarded on a first come basis. Candidates will be selected based on their financial need and interest to attend camp, as expressed through the required essay.

Please submit your application and essay by June 1st, to the Nobis Project: PO Box 9304, Savannah, GA 31412.
